SOCIETY

NOW that society returns to Richmond and the season draws near its beginning, the debutante of the coming winter is the all-absorbing topic of the day. Many of them are coming from quaint little convents of France and Italy, with all the foreign touches to their new frocks and bon-nets, some from the various boarding-schools and colleges, and all of them bringing a freshness and vivacity which only anticipation of one's first season can give. They are all the daughters of the lovely, charming mothers and gallant fathers that graced the most exclusive circles of Richmond society only a few seasons back, in the days when the old Richmond Club was the gathering place of the wits and beaux of the day, and when the old-fashioned gavotte and polka were the dances that their graceful ladyships were pleased to tread, and these quite charming young ladies, just now lingering along the way, will tuck up their curls and dance quite as happily at their first "Monday" as ever their mothers did.

The debutantes of this season already announced are: Miss Lucy Ford Wortham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wortham, Jr.; Miss Dorothy Christian, daughter of Mrs. Edward Christian; Miss Gwendolyn Rutherford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Rutherford; Miss Rosalie Valentine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Valentine; Miss Mary Saunders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Saunders, Jr.; Miss Nell Potts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Potts; Miss Emma Gray White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. White; Miss Frances Wheat, daughter of Mrs. Lewis Wheat; Miss Nora Randolph, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. Randolph; Miss Lena Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Miller; Miss Catherine Gunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Gunn; Miss Cary Valentine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mann Valentine; Miss Janie Boulware, daughter of Mrs. Aubin L. Boulware; Miss Helen Gray Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gray Watson; Miss Grace Perkins, granddaughter of Mrs. W. H. Perkins; Miss Mary Demis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Demis; Miss Elizabeth Hargrave, niece of Mrs. Isaac Davenport; Miss Lettice Woodward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Minor Woodward; Miss Nancy Patton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Patton; Miss Della Davenport, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davenport; Miss Zayde Branch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kerr Branch.

Concerning Miss Glasgow.

Miss Ellen Glasgow, who returned from England early in the summer and spent some time at the Warm Springs and the Greenbrier White Sulphur, has since been visiting friends in Colorado and Chicago. Miss Glasgow is in fine health, and will continue her literary work as soon as she returns.

Miss Hite in Richmond.

Mrs. W. W. Hite arrived on Friday to be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pace, on Grove Avenue. Mrs. Hite has been spending some time in Louisville, Ky., and will be in Richmond until after October 1, when she will go to New York for the winter.

Gray—Mewhort.
Invitations have been received in Richmond for the marriage of Miss Jessie Wilson Mewhort, of Montreal, Canada, to Dr. Benjamin Hughes Gray, the wedding to take place on October 2, in Montreal, Canada. The approaching marriage is of great interest here. Dr. Gray is a son of the late Andrew Gray, of Richmond and Northfield, Cumberland county. He is a graduate of the University College of Medicine, and for some years has been the head of a private hospital in New York. He is the brother of William, Andrew and Clarence Gray, of this city. Clarence Gray will go on to Montreal to attend his brother as best man. Immediately after the ceremony Dr. Gray will bring his bride to Virginia. They will be at home in New York City after December 1.

Junior Cotillions.
The attractive cotillions of the younger set of Richmond society that take place every season at regular intervals, under the auspices of the Misses Hinford, will begin again about the middle of October. The first full meeting of the Woman's Club will be held tomorrow (Monday) afternoon at half past 4, when Mrs. Harriet Temple Burnley, formerly of Richmond, but now of New York, will give some of her inimitable sketches.

Mrs. Burnley has made an enviable reputation as an impersonator of Southern types, most of her monologues and songs being entirely her own. Allen Dale says she stands absolutely alone in that she impersonates character to the life.

During the summer she spent two weeks at Newport, where she read at Mrs. Pembroke Jones's, Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish's, Mrs. Ellisha Dyer's, and at the Marble House. She also gave two concerts at Ocean Grove before immense audiences.

Miss Myrtle Redford will preside at the piano.

The New---the Alluring in Autumn Millinery!

Hats of refined taste await you, here—all representative of the most advanced fashion edicts for autumn.

Paris has sent its masterpieces—the famous Ateliers of Europe have contributed their most fetching models—and added to these beauties from abroad are the exquisite creations from our own workrooms—products of taste and skill from the hands of our splendid corps of trimmers.

There's more diversity in trimmings this year than usual.

Among the style leaders in the Smaller Hats are the Cossack and Hussar, also the low Arabian Draped Turbans, the latter style being almost diametrically opposed to the former.

Tarnished gold and silver will be very fashionable this fall for trimmings.

To strangers and visitors who have not experienced the pleasure of shopping at Kaufmann's a visit to our showrooms will be of interest—we feel sure such a visit will add your name to our long list of customers.
